About the Organization

826michigan is a nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting students in Ypsilanti, Detroit, and Ann Arbor, ages 6 to 18 years old with their creative and expository writing skills, and to helping teachers inspire their students to write. Our headquarters are in Ann Arbor, and we have plans to open a full-service site in Detroit in 2015.

826michigan's work is based on the understanding that strong writing skills are fundamental to students’ future success, and that great leaps in learning can be made through one-on-one attention. We offer students unique learning opportunities by providing a combination of drop-in tutoring, field trips, after-school workshops, in-school tutoring, help for English language learners, and assistance with student publications.

Through the efforts of over 500 active volunteers, 826michigan serves 2,700+ students annually. Since opening in 2006, it has delivered free youth writing and tutoring programs to over 11,000 students total.

826michigan is part of 826 National, an award-winning national network of youth writing centers, founded by author Dave Eggers (A Heartbreaking Work of Staggering Genius, McSweeney's). In addition to being a leading member of the 826 National network, 826michigan is also a vital part of the local community. The Ann Arbor Book Festival honored 826michigan as a “Leader in the Literary Arts” in 2012; Crain's Detroit Business named 826michigan one of its Best-Managed Nonprofits in 2013; and 826 National was named in GOOD Magazine’s “30 Places We Want to Work”.

826michigan programs are completely free and open to the public, in keeping with our conviction that educational enrichment opportunities are vital for all.
826michigan presently serves students in Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, and most recently the city of Detroit. For more information about our programs, please visit www.826michigan.org
